IPPF Charter and Rebrand Phase 1: IPPF Youth introduction and Exploration Webinar

Aim

Space for youth to familiarise with the Charter and Rebrand process and its goals; non-judgemental and open space for initial exploration of concepts and values.

Date

Wednesday 7 June 2023.

Time

07:00 - 09:00 BST and 16:00 - 18:00 BST.

Location

Zoom.

Attendees

Open to IPPF Youth.

Meeting Focus

- Exploration of concepts and values, agreement on expected outcomes of Charter;
- Identify opportunities to strengthen youth engagement in the Identity Initiative;
- Examine what values need to be felt and seen in IPPF;
- Review and next steps.

Meeting Format

Two-hour Zoom meeting with break out discussions, interpretation in four IPPF languages.

Agenda 1

Time	Session
07:00-07:10	Introduction to the consultation workshop
	This introduction will present the background of the Charter and Rebrand work, as well as clarify key terms that will be used throughout the meeting.
	The session will include a short values clarification exercise, as an opportunity to explore individually held values and differentiate them from institutional values.
	Objective: To ensure clarity on language used and aims of the consultation.
	Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead)
07:10-07:20	Youth Participation in IPPF
	This interactive session will provide information on how IPPF is currently working with young people, as well as the principles and structures currently supporting this participation.
	Objective: To ensure participants understand how youth engagement has been organised within IPPF.

_
	Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead)
07:20-07:30	Youth engagement plan overview
07.20-07.30	This overview will provide an update on how youth participation is expected to be organised as part of the Charter of Values and Rebrand consultations.
	to be organised as part of the charter of values and Rebiana consultations.
	Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand.
	Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead)
07:30-07:50	Amplifying youth voices
	This interactive session will explore ways in which youth participation in the Charter of Values and the Rebrand can be improved. It will explore possible ways of working, design of sessions and other considerations to improve the quality of youth engagement.
	Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand.
	Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead)
07:50-08:15	Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like?
	Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?"
	The get pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will
	The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions.
	evoke in them, and to engage in a racilitated discussion on the questions.
	Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity.
	,
	Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager)
08:15-08:45	Putting values into action
	Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion.
	Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action.
	Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead)

An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.
Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead)

Agenda 2

Time	Session
16:00-16:15	Welcome remarks
	These remarks will provide insights into the lived realities of young people served by IPPF, and reflect on youth expectations of the Charter and Rebrand processes. They will be delivered by a youth representative seconded by youth within IPPF.
	Objective: To ensure there is a shared understanding of the priorities identified by young people for the Charter and Rebrand process.
	Facilitators: Luisa Fernanda Guzmán González and Amour Dieu-Donné
	(Youth Steering Committee Members)
16:15-16:25	Youth Participation in IPPF
	This overview will provide information on how IPPF is currently working with young people, as well as the principles and structures currently supporting this participation.
	Objective: To ensure participants understand how youth engagement has been organised within IPPF.
	Facilitator: Gabriela Munoz (Assistant, IPPF Americas and the Caribbean Regional Office)
16:25-16:35	Introduction to the consultation workshop
	This introduction will present the background of the Charter and Rebrand work, as well as clarify key terms that will be used throughout the meeting.
	The session will include a short values clarification exercise, as an opportunity to explore individually held values and differentiate them from institutional values.
	Objective: To ensure clarity on language used and aims of the consultation.
	Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead)
16:35-16:45	Youth engagement plan overview
	This overview will provide an update on how youth participation is expected to be organised as part of the Charter of Values and Rebrand consultations.
	Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand.

16:45-17:00 Amplifying youth voices This interactive session will explore ways in which youth participation in the Charter of Values and the Rebrand can be improved. It will explore possible ways of working, design of sessions and other considerations to improve the quality of youth engagement. Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand. Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead) Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead)
Charter of Values and the Rebrand can be improved. It will explore possible ways of working, design of sessions and other considerations to improve the quality of youth engagement. Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand. Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead) 17:00-17:20 Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.	16:45-17:00	Amplifying youth voices ways of working, design of sessions and other considerations to improve the quality of youth engagement. Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand. Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead) Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		This interactive session will explore ways in which youth participation in the quality of youth engagement. Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand. Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead) 17:00-17:20 Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) 17:20-17:45 Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) 17:45-18:00 Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		Charter of Values and the Rebrand can be improved. It will explore possible
Objective: To identify opportunities to strengthen the involvement of young people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand. Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead) Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		ways of working, design of sessions and other considerations to improve the people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand. Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead) Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		quality of youth engagement.
17:00–17:20 Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		, , , ,
17:00-17:20 Art Exercise: What would a team of SRHR Super-Heroes, look, feel and sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		people in the Charter of Values and Rebrand.
sound like? Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		·
Using materials provided, groups of three will create an art piece that is a visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.	17:00-17:20	- visual representation of their interpretation of "What does a team of SRHR Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.
Super-Heroes look like?" The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.
The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity.* Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		· · have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager)* Putting values into action* Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead)* Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		Super-Heroes look like?"
have the opportunity to share the feelings and thoughts that the pieces evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions. Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager)* Putting values into action* Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead)* Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		The art pieces will be displayed and described, and the rest of the group will Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) 17:20-17:45 Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) 17:45-18:00 Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		evoke in them, and to engage in a facilitated discussion on the questions.
their expectations of the Federation as an entity. Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) 17:20-17:45 Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) 17:45-18:00 Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.
Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager) 17:20-17:45 Putting values into action Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		Objective: To identify how young people see IPPF and its role, and to unpack
Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		their expectations of the Federation as an entity.
Participants will have an opportunity to reflect on the top 5/6 values surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		Facilitator: Isabella Lewis (Charter and Rebrand Project Manager)
surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.	17:20-17:45	Putting values into action surfaced during the superhero exercise, and what these values look like in action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.
action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion. Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.
Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.
be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		action. The session will include quiet reflection and a plenary discussion.
be put in action. Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead) Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		Objective: To understand how young people expect the identified values to
17:45-18:00 Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		be put in action.
17:45-18:00 Wrap Up! Take five deep breaths to reset. An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.		Facilitator: Heather Barclay (Charter Co-Lead)
An opportunity for participants to share highlights of the session and what in their minds has changed because of the discussions.	17:45-18:00
their minds has changed because of the discussions.	77.10 10.00
Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead)
		Facilitator: Yemurai Nyoni (Charter Co-Lead)