

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the open job position. Your description of the work responsibilities for the role closely matches my passion for human rights and desire to achieve an impactful change with my work.

I have been working in the legal field since 2019, in various esteemed law firms in Bulgaria. Throughout this journey, I've gained practical experience in Family Law, Labor Law, Litigation, Contract Management, and Legal Compliance.

In 2022 I joined a newly established team responsible for relocating highly qualified international professionals with non-European Union citizenship to Bulgaria as an Employee Relocation Specialist at Musala Soft AD. I am was tasked with creating a step-by-step process to maximize the productivity while protecting the candidates interests and writing a policy that would serve as a guiding for the team's future work. I collaborated closely with foreign administrations and professionals to gather insights and best practices, ensuring that the relocation process was not only efficient but also aligned with our organization's values and candidate-centric approach.

While I derive immense satisfaction from providing legal aid and support to individuals and their families amidst the transitional phases of corporate relocation, my ambitions extend beyond. My aspiration is to contribute to a role that enables me to wholeheartedly advocate for the interests of underserved and vulnerable communities, devoid of any conflicts with corporate priorities. With a dedication to fostering meaningful change, I am actively seeking opportunities that align with my values, where my expertise can be harnessed to effect positive transformation within underprivileged communities.

I would greatly appreciate your consideration of my application. Thank you for your time and attention.

Best regards,

Rada Valchanova
